I heard that you didn't get the lead role in the play though you had a great audition. But you should learn the role as if you did have the lead. Even if you do not act in the show, mastering such a difficult role will serve you well in the future. I had a similar situation in school, though in a different area: I wanted to be the editor of the school paper, but the teacher in charge picked another student. I was disappointed, but I kept writing and now I'm a columnist in a newspaper. So never give up! You are great, and that's all that matters!

17. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

Before picking out a souvenir to take home, consider how it was made and where it came from. If animal products such as animal bone or skin were used to make it, just leave it on the shelf. Picking your souvenirs directly from nature is another bad idea. That is because sea shells are more beautiful on the beach than on your desk. Instead, choose something which does not have negative effects on the place you visit, such as paintings or crafts produced by local artists.

빈칸 (A)와 (B)에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은?

Have you ever heard a song on the radio that you didn't like until it started to appeal to you? This is true of anything — a person, a place, or even a product. You may not like some people at first, but after a while you grow to like them, and sometimes you even become their friend. Companies sometimes advertise a picture of a product, or its name repeatedly, without providing any specific features or benefits of the product. Then you see the advertisement over and over again. One day, you find yourself coming out of a shop with the product in your hand.
